Certified Government Chief Information Officer™

The Certified Government Chief Information Officer™ (CGCIO™) program focuses on emerging technologies, information security, ethics, contract management, interpersonal communication, project and resource management, and sustainability, among other related topics.

The University of Georgia Carl Vinson Institute of Government (CVIIOG) has partnered with Georgia Government Management Information Sciences (GA GMIS) to offer program certification for qualified professionals through online and in-person classes, independent assignments, and a capstone project. Due to this collaboration, the in-person classes will be arranged during the semi-annual GA GMIS conferences scheduled for

October 25 – 29, 2020 • St. Simons Island, GA
May 2 – 6, 2021 • Athens, GA
October 17 – 21, 2021 • Savannah, GA

Program Duration August 2020 to October 2021

Tuition $3,900 per participant, which includes all three GA GMIS conference registrations

Note: Tuition includes conference food but not other expenses.

Application Deadline July 15, 2020

Class size limited to 24 participants.
